NAVAIR INSTRUCTION 13100.12A

From: Commander, Naval Air Systems Command

Subj: RESPONSIBILITY FOR CARRIER EMPLOYMENT PLANNING DATA

1. Purpose. To state the responsibility for preparation and dissemination of carrier employment planning data within the Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR), and to establish a central point of contact for receipt of carrier employment plans from higher authority.

2. Cancellation. This instruction supersedes NAVAIR Instruction 13100.12 of 19 September 1985. R)

3. Background. Carrier employment plans are integral to the planning, programming, and budgeting cycle and are necessary for the acquisition, delivery, provisioning, and installation of aviation outfittings and facilities planning. The carrier employment plan is a 5 year projection of deployments and yard availabilities for each aircraft carrier and amphibious assault ship in the active inventory. Major items included for each deployed carrier are the squadron designation, number and type, model and series of aircraft assigned to each squadron, identification of diversely configured aircraft, and maintenance levels of support.

4. Responsibility. The Director, Plans and Resources Division (AIR-100) is the central point of contact within NAVAIR for receipt of carrier employment plans from higher authority and will

a. develop, supplement if necessary, and issue the plans within NAVAIR and to other activities as appropriate; and

b. approve and issue carrier employment plans as an integral part of Weapon System Planning Documents (form NAVAIR 13100/12D) for carrier based weapon systems. R)

5. Forms. NAVAIR 13100/12D Weapon System Planning Data Assignments and Baseloading (Carrier Employment) (Aircraft) is maintained by Naval Air Systems Command Headquarters (AIR-1004) for internal use only. R)
